64 DAYS TO GO

Well as we start to end out 2015 the PFCI 2016 only gets closer each day.. With still only 4 competitors we are in talks with a few other that are still sitting on the fence.. Hopefully a few drinks over the Christmas period with help them make their mind up and take to the plunge for their first PFCI. Not much else to report. There has been no testing taken place. Transport options etc will come in the next newsletter

Along with the a summery of the PFCI 2016.. So all have a merry Christmas and a safe and happy new year.
