53 Days to go

Well not long to go at all. You can nearly count the hours.. But we still have to wait till 2014.. Lucky that is only a few weeks away.. With the charter booked and go karting booked all is ready for our arrival..

Remember to have the final payment in by the end of the month. The final newsletter next month will be full of all the information that you will need. Mainly for the new guys.

Plans will be discussed over the Christmas period on pick up options and will be in the next newsletter. Not much more else to write expect for stay tuned for a huge email next month..

The PFCI wishes you all a safe new year and a merry merry Christmas..

FINAL PAYMENT DUE

The final payment is due by the end of December. The payment details will be attached to the email.. Please have this paid by the end of December so I don't have to do any chasing up.. Also those that got booties as well please add the extra $30...

BUILDING UPDATE

Well some plans have been put on hold.. The external extension has to go back to planning but we will still have up dated facilities in the main building.. Updated bathroom and kitchen. Not that we will be spending much time in there.. The winners room will be available so will depend on who is selected to be Ben.J's team mate..

Stay tuned for any further developments..

CHARTER BOOKED

Mark has booked the charter for the 6th of Feb. Cost will be $1800.00 NZ for the boat so the more people the cheaper it would be. Leave the PFCI Headquarters about 4:30am and back about 5pm or about there. For those that don't wish to be on the water all day (like my Self) there will be land based activities such as Knitting and hat weaving being conducted.. Yeah Right. We will most likely grab a car and a boat and head to one of the lakes.. For more details on the charter email mark or have a chat to him on the plane or car trip to the PFCI.
