

PFCI 2013 FORM GUIDE

ANDREW CASSER.

An Average all round performance in 2012. Could have placed higher in the Go Karting if he didn't take the off road Route. Plenty of Fish Caught and was also in the running for the biggest fish. Expect a top 4 finish in all events in 2013. Took out the smallest fish of 2012 but I don't think that is something he wants to back up in 2013.

Expect a lot of Afternoon siesta's from Andrew

CAM CRAIB.

Where did this guy come from. On the last cast of the day of the PFCI he pulls out a Massive Kahawai to take out the Biggest Fish trophy. Was it luck or was it planed all the way. 2013 will tell if it was luck or not. An average performance all round so expect a lot in 2013 as he will be out to defend his biggest fish title.

Could the New Zealand Lager be the tipping point and his true drinking colours are revealed.

GEORGE ABBOTT.

Not a great performance in 2012, Was his team mate the reason to this?? Was there sabotage?? Only 2013 will tell. With the early departure the odds have gone way out for all Fishing events. But you can be rest assured that his last night will be a big one and will defiantly have the winning feeling the next day..

Expect to See the return of Smells like fish.

PFCI 2013 CREW FORM GUIDE

BEN SMITH.

Great all round performance from Ben in all areas in 2012 taking out the PFCI Most Fish, Part of the Best Team “HOW BIG” and 2nd in Go Karting. Missed out on the championship by 5 points but if it was based on 2013 points system he would have been the champion. Expect a great all round performance from Ben and he could be the Next PFCI champion. Top 3 finish in all events. May also choose to defend their BEST TEAM Award or Go back in the mix.

BEN JAMEISON.

Was very unlucky in 2012. If it wasn't for the Capsize on the best days fishing he would have been in the top 3. Go Karting is all but secure for Ben. Lets hope for some rain to even up the placing's. 2013 will see him possibly finish in the top 3 of all events. Will know that area quite well in 2013 so depending on the Team mate may have a good shot at the Best Team Award.

5 –1 odds on staying in the Boat

LACHLAN HUNTER.

A below Average performance from Lachlan. Did he spent too much time planning and implementing the demise of his team mate. Could have pulled a Cam and came away with the biggest fish but not to be. With the early departure and teaming up with George again it can only get better. Go Karting will cost him Points so he will be hoping to find a few good fishing holes.

Swamp donkey may cost him some fishing day. Quote “We go where and when swamp Donkey goes”

MARK PORTELLI.

Great all round fishing performance from Mark in 2012 taking out the PFCI championship and Part of the Best Team “HOW BIG”. Go Karting was a major down fall and with points introduced for 2013 could see the Championship go to another Contender if his fishing game is off. May also choose to defend their BEST TEAM Award or Go back in the mix.

JAMES BURNS.

All round average performance at the 2012 PFCI. Didn't Place less than 5th. What's in store for 2013.. Well the odds say a similar performance to 2012. Watch out for a possible top 3 finish in Go Karting and with November PFCI testing there may be new fishing spots found. Will be a contender for the Biggest fish after 2012 Results.
